

JACKPERSAD & PARTNERS INC.
SPECIALIST DIAGNOSTIC RADIOLOGISTS

Barium Swallow Preparation Requirements

No preparation is required.

Procedure

The examination takes approximately 10-15 minutes and requires swallowing approximately 1 cupful of a Barium solution. Films will be taken in various positions. It is a non-invasive test and there is no pain or discomfort involved.

After Procedure

You may continue normal activity. As the Barium may be constipating, a mild laxative will be given.